

Quiz

- (1) Can I submit a Motion to Intervene, Notice of Appearance, Form 13 and Form 17 as one document?
- (a) Yes
 - (b) No
- (2) What is the maximum electronic file size that you can submit in the CM/ECF system?
- (a) 1 megabytes
 - (b) 2 megabytes
 - (c) 3 megabytes
 - (d) No size limit
- (3) What kind of document(s) is prohibited to be filed on the CM/ECF?
- (a) A document that contains business proprietary or classified information
 - (b) A document is filed under seal pursuant to Court Order
 - (c) A document that cannot be converted to PDF
 - (d) All of the above
- (4) It is 7:30 pm EST and my computer is out of service. I need to file a document today. What can I do?
- (a) File the document by certified mail & return receipt requested and accompany it with a Declaration that Party was Unable to File in a Timely Manner Due to Technical Difficulties.
 - (b) File the document by certified mail & return receipt requested and accompany it with a Notice of Manual Filing.
 - (c) File the document by certified mail & return receipt requested and accompany it with a written letter from the attorney explaining why.
 - (d) None of the above
- (5) I am changing firms and I am taking one active case with me. What must I do?
- (a) Submit a new CM/ECF Registration Form and file a Form 11 Notice of Appearance.
 - (b) Submit a Motion to Amend Attorney Information.
 - (c) Submit a Notice of Change of Attorney Information and file a Form 12 Notice of Substitution of Attorney.
 - (d) Submit a Notice of Change of Attorney Information and file a Form 11 Notice of Appearance.