In re THREE JUDGE PANELS	:	ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
	:	No. 07-01
-----X	:

1. Order of Precedence.

The chief judge shall be the presiding judge. In the absence of the chief judge, the presiding judge shall be that judge most senior in regular active service in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 258(b).

2. Oral Argument.

- (a) Determination in Panel Cases. If it is requested by at least one judge, oral argument shall be ordered.
- (b) Notice to Counsel. The clerk shall notify counsel, no fewer than ten days prior thereto, of the date a case is to be orally argued. At that time, the clerk shall also inform the parties of any time limitations placed on oral argument by the panel.

3. Motion Practice.

Motions generally shall be granted or denied by the presiding judge if they are administrative and unrelated to the disposition of the case, unless that judge believes reference to the entire panel is appropriate. In lieu of the presiding judge, the panel may assign the task of deciding procedural motions to another panel member. Motions related to scheduling cases for argument shall always be referred to the entire panel.

4. Post-Decision Matters.

- (a) A motion for reconsideration shall be referred to the panel.
- (b) A motion to amend the judgment of the court shall be referred to the panel.
- (c) A remand from the Federal Circuit shall be referred to the panel that decided the matter.

5. Reassignment to a Single Judge.

Cases shall be assigned to three judge panels by the chief judge in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 255(a). Every effort shall be made to avoid repetitive scheduling of panels composed of the same judges. If a panel makes a decision in a case disposing of the issue or issues that initially gave rise to the need for a three judge panel, the panel may ask the chief judge to reassign the remaining issues in the case to a single judge from the panel.
