

HAVE GAVEL, WILL TRAVEL

THE SCOPE OF
JUDGE JANE A. RESTANI'S
40 YEARS OF SERVICE: A SYMPOSIUM

AGENDA

2:00pm Opening of Special Session, Chief Judge Mark A. Barnett
Welcome, Daniel Olton, Law Clerk

2:10pm HMT – A Tax, or Not a Tax? That is But the First of Many, Many Questions
Presented by Alexandra B. Hess, Counsel, Cassidy Levy Kent (USA) LLP and James E. Ransdell, Counsel, Cassidy Levy Kent (USA) LLP
General Manuel Noriega and the Application of the Geneva Conventions in U.S. Courts
Presented by Collin Mathias, Former Law Clerk

Judge Restani and the Premature Computer-Generated Liquidation Notices
Presented by Patrick Reed, Acting President of USCIT's Historical Society

2:55pm A Practitioner's Look Back
Michael O'Rourke, Of Counsel, Sandler, Travis & Rosenberg P.A.

3:05pm Bears, Backhoes, and Bottle Toppers:
A Survey of Judge Restani's Customs Classifications Through 40 Years
Presented by Mathias Rabinovitch, Trial Attorney, U.S. Department of Justice
Section 232 and the Constitution: The Courts Weigh In Presented by Sarah Hunter, Attorney Adviser, U.S. Department of State Office of the Legal Adviser

Trading with the NME: The Legacy of Judge Restani's GPX Decisions
Presented by Jennifer Smith-Veluz, Partner, The Bristol Group PLLC

3:50pm Closing of Special Session, Emily Beline, President of CITBA

4:00pm Reception, 8th Floor Library
Co-hosted by The Customs and International Trade Bar Association (CITBA)