

Rule 56.3. Annexation of Statement to Rule 56 Motion for Summary Judgment

(a) On any motion for summary judgment filed pursuant to Rule 56, the factual positions described in Rule 56(c)(1)(A) must be annexed to the motion in a separate, short and concise statement, in numbered paragraphs, of the material facts as to which the moving party contends there is no genuine issue to be tried. Failure to submit this statement may constitute grounds for denial of the motion.

(b) In the papers opposing a Rule 56 motion for summary judgment, the factual positions described in Rule 56(c)(1)(B) must include correspondingly numbered paragraphs responding to the numbered paragraphs in the statement of the movant, and if necessary, additional paragraphs including a separate, short and concise statement of additional material facts as to which it is contended that there exists a genuine issue to be tried.

(c) Subject to any Rule 56(c)(2) objection, each statement by the movant or opponent pursuant to Rule 56.3(a) and (b), including each statement controverting any statement of material fact, will be followed by citation to evidence which would be admissible.
