

Rule 77.1. Judicial Conference

(a) Purpose. The chief judge is authorized to summon annually the judges of the court to a judicial conference, at a time and place the chief judge designates, for the purpose of considering the business of the court and improvements in the administration of justice in the court. The chief judge will preside at the conference.

(b) Composition. All members of the bar of this court may be members of the conference and participate in its discussions and deliberations.

(c) Registration Fee. A registration fee will be paid by attendees of the conference, and will be applied to the payment of expenses of the conference, as approved by the judge.
