

CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION CREDITS

This program has been approved in accordance with the requirements of the New York State Continuing Legal Education Board for a maximum of 5.5 credit hours, which can be applied toward the Areas of Professional Practice requirement.

New York State Attorneys: You will be issued a Certificate of Attendance informing you of the number of CLE credits you earned that have been approved by the New York State Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Board for the Conference.

Non-New York State Attorneys: You will be issued a Certificate of Attendance informing you of the number of CLE credits approved by the New York State CLE Board for the Conference. However, you will need to submit the Certificate of Attendance, the application for CLE credit appropriate to your state and any additional information (this generally includes a copy of the program announcement, timed agenda, faculty biographies, program description and, if required, a copy of the course material) to the CLE Boards of the states in which you are admitted to the Bar.

Note: Please be sure to review your state's CLE Credit Application to ensure that you submit all the required material.
